

Temperature (°F)

Relative Humidity %

	90	91	92	93	94	95	96	97	98	99	100	101	102	103	104	105
90	180	181	182	183	184	279	185	186	187	188	288	189	190	191	192	297
85	175	176	177	178	179	180	181	182	183	184	185	186	187	188	188	189
80	170	171	172	173	174	175	176	177	178	179	180	181	182	183	184	185
75	165	166	167	168	169	170	171	172	173	174	175	176	177	178	179	180
70	160	161	162	163	164	165	166	167	168	169	170	171	172	173	174	175
65	155	156	157	158	159	160	161	162	163	164	165	166	167	168	169	170
60	150	151	152	153	154	155	156	157	158	159	160	161	162	163	164	165
55	145	146	147	148	149	150	151	152	153	154	155	156	157	158	159	160
50	140	141	142	143	144	145	146	147	148	149	150	151	152	153	154	155
45	135	136	137	138	139	140	141	142	143	144	145	146	147	148	149	150
40	130	131	132	133	134	135	136	137	138	139	140	141	142	143	144	145
35	125	126	167	208	249	290	331	372	413	454	495	536	577	618	659	700
30	120	121	122	123	124	125	126	127	128	129	130	131	132	133	134	135

Avoid heatstroke in your horse. Pay attention to the humidity AND the temperature.

If the sum of the temperature and the humidity is:

- Less than 130 - No problem
- Greater than 150 - Use caution, especially if the humidity is greater than half of the total.
- Greater than 180 - Use EXTREME CAUTION, since normal cooling is almost ineffectual and horses may resort to panting.